2023 Argentario Sailing Week - 40 majestic Classic Yachts and 110 years of sailing history ready to race in Tuscany!

Porto Santo Stefano, Argentario, Tuscany, 14

June 2023 - The majestic 40 Grandes Dames of the Sea from 8 nations - including 14 Debutantes - are ready to race in the not-to-be missed classic and vintage yacht regatta Argentario Sailing Week organized by the Yacht Club Santo Stefano and by the Municipality of Monte Argentario.

110 years of sailing history are docked at the old harbour of "La Pilarella" ready to cross bows in the pristine waters of the Tyrrhenian Sea with Argentario, the islands of Giglio, Montecristo and Elba, and the ancient Roman harbor of Talamone as a stunning backdrop. 12 beauties designed by Sparkman & Stephens, 3 designed by William Fife III, 4 by German Frers, (including one at the age of 16) 2 by Herreshoff, 2 by Hoek and yachts designed by Anker, Buchanan, Carcano, Dahlstrom, Dykstra, Gardner, Giles Jack Laurent, Giles Morgan, Holland. Liljegren, Mylne, Nicholson, Paine Sangermani, Sciarrelli and Vallicelli will be on the starting line.

The fleet of Big Boats, Vintage, Classic, Classic IOR, Spirit of Tradition and S&S Swan Yachts will enjoy - once again - 4 days of racing from 14 to 18 June 2023. Argentario Sailing Week is one of the regattas part of the 2023 CIM Championship created by the Comite International de la Mediterranee - whose program includes events in Italy as well as in Spain, France and Monaco. - and of the 2023 Mediterranean Champions Cup created by the Vintage & Classic Yacht Club,

The history of each of the Classic Yachts and of their designers are available
